

WHY Y4Y?

WHY Y4Y?

Dear Guests,

“Why Y4Y?” is a legitimate question for anyone who considers chartering a yacht in our company, with the aim of having the best time of the year.

That is why we have decided to offer you an answer in our own characteristic and creative way. We talked to employees, colleagues, business partners and guests, and we are presenting you their portraits and impressions...

4 EPIC MEN, Y4Y long term guests:
“It just feels like home, we are not taking sailing trips no more, we are making memories whenever we come here. Friendships were born here and everything from people, boats, services and their kindness is just plain and simple – EPIC !”

SRDAN, the General Manager who gives importance to everything that matters: “We care about the people who use our service and the staff who work hard to achieve our goals and want the best experience for both. We are true to our values.”

KRISTINA, the Client Manager,
the welcoming face of Y4Y:
“I was looking for a job, but with Y4Y I get so much more, very good friends and a lot of positive energy.”

ATLE, a former Norwegian client, and today a boat owner and partner: "From the start of our holiday in 2014 we felt that Y4Y was a company that really cared for their clients. We had two wonderful weeks onboard MILA, and during our holiday we wondered how it would be to have a boat on our own in Croatia. From the moment we arrived in the marina with a lot of questions, we were taken care of in the best possible way. From that moment, we felt like a part of the Y4Y family. We are coming back to our "family" every summer, and on some extra occasions. Every time we are welcomed by a friendly staff, giving us the perfect start on every holiday. Having a boat at Y4Y is simple, they take really good care of PETRA II, and the boat is always in good condition. We really feel that our baby (PETRA II) is in the best hands in the Y4y family."

IVANA, a model who worked in Y4Y marketing campaigns:
“Y4Y because of the extremely friendly staff who are ready to answer every question and who are excellent at work.”
